

CANNON WOULD FIGHT INSURGENTS

Would Treat Cummins, La Follette and Bristow Just as He Would Treat Bryan.

DEFENDS RULES OF HOUSE

Very Vehement in Objecting to Remarks of a Paper That Said His Popularity Was on Wane.

Kansas City, Nov. 26.—"When Senator Cummins, La Follette and Bristow and their so-called 'progressive' following, join hands with Mr. Bryan in making war upon Republican members of Congress who passed the tariff bill, and upon the president who signed it, and then I know of only one way to treat them, and that is to fight them just as we fight Mr. Bryan and his following."

Such was the declaration of Speaker Cannon, who delivered the principal address before the annual banquet of the Knife and Fork club here tonight. Mr. Cannon said Senator Cummins alone had read himself out of the Republican party. He defended the rules of the house of representatives, saying they have not been substantially as they have in the past, and are, so long as there is a Congress, as good as there is a Congress.

"Ever since history began," said the speaker, "the leader of the minority has been seeking some device by which he could overcome the will of the majority."

Mr. Cannon asserted that while the Payne tariff law is not perfect, it is the best yet passed under Republican leadership, that since the enactment of the new law production in this country and imports have greatly increased, and that day by day conditions are improving.

DISMISSES INSURGENTS.
The "insurgents" and their followers, he said, are seeking to hinder the progress of prosperity by criticism and denigration, and that this, too, within three months of the passage of the tariff. Only such agitation can halt the prospective era of prosperity, he declared.

"The demagogue," said Mr. Cannon, "we have always with us, and as ours is a government of the people, the only way to dispose of him is to move on. I am perfectly willing to trust the verdict of a prosperous and happy people in the elections in November next, after the new tariff law has been in operation for more than a year."

"Do you know that 18 months ago, next to Roosevelt, whom I consider a very great man and a most popular man in the country, I was the most popular man in the country."

"Yes, sir, with the newspapers and the magazines I was the most popular man in the country."

Thus spoke Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, upon his arrival here today.

SCIATICA CURED PROOF IS HERE

This Disease Is a Form of Neuralgia and Is Cured by the Remedy That Cures Other Forms.

Sciatica is neuralgia of the sciatic nerve and the treatment should be the same as for other forms of neuralgia. So many severe cases of sciatica have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that every sufferer is justified in giving the treatment a thorough trial.

Sciatica, being an inflammation of the nerve, may arise from many causes, pressure on the nerve, a fall upon the thighs, lifting heavy weights, or exposure such as most army veterans have undergone.

Mr. J. H. Shamel, of R. F. D. No. 2, Cherryvale, Kansas, who served during the Civil war, as a member of Cos. E and B, 75th Ohio Infantry, describes his cure of sciatica by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as follows:

"Ever since the close of the war I had suffered more or less with sciatica but the most serious attack I had was in January, 1908. I was confined to bed for nearly two months and had to be propped up as I could not lie down. The disease affected my entire body but was worse in the left side and hip. The pains were so sharp that it seemed as though a knife was being run into me. Oftentimes the pains would shift suddenly from my hips to my side and even to the cords of my neck."

"I was under the care of doctors for a long time but they did me no good. Liniments did not help me and the injection of morphine was the only thing that gave me relief. My daughter advised me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. I did and they gave me wonderful benefit. The pain entirely left me and I have had no return of the sciatica since."

Sciatica is stubborn in resisting treatment and the patient frequently suffers for years. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply relieve pain but they cure diseases caused by depraved or vitiated blood. They are also efficacious for the treatment of even the most severe nervous disorders.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $3.00, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

"Oh, I know all right what has caused the change," continued the speaker. "But I could not have done different. It was impossible to take any other stand on this matter of the tariff."

"I only wish that I were a greater man than I am," Mr. Cannon said, "and I would like such men as these progressives off the face of the earth. I am an old man, 73 years of age, and some day will have to go to the scrap heap, but when I do no one can say that there was an atom that was governed by any other man."

SCORES HOSTILE PAPER.
At the conclusion of his prepared speech Speaker Cannon indulged in some extemporaneous remarks in which he became vehement in his objection to the attitude of a local paper toward him. He quoted the paper as stating today that "Speaker Cannon realizes that his popularity is on the wane," and declared in response to that statement that in all his long life he had never turned his back upon a friend nor his face away from an enemy.

"Will you print that?" he yelled toward the press table, and added:

"I am sorry the editor of the paper is not here to answer me himself." Speaker Cannon deplored what he explained as the custom of some newspapers to mislead their readers by an ingenious article of headlines and intimated that the support of newspapers was not always necessary for the success of a man in public life. He cited recent elections in the Sixth Illinois congressional district, where, he said, the successful candidate was opposed by leading papers of Chicago. Ridiculing the charge that the Payne tariff law was enacted for the benefit of New England interests, the speaker cited numerous statistics to support his declaration that products of New England manufacturers had shown a decided increase under Republican policies as compared with the increase of manufacturers in other sections.

Former Congressman John Allen of Mississippi, who also addressed the club, supported the arguments of Speaker Cannon in defending rules of the house, but he said he could not agree with Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and President Taft that the Payne law was the best tariff law ever enacted.

SEARCHING FOR CLEVER BAND OF BURGLARS

Tarrytown, N. Y., Nov. 27.—The police of this place, assisted by a squad of private detectives, are searching for a band of clever burglars who last week entered the home of Robert B. Dula, vice president of the American Tobacco company and departed with $10,000 worth of silverware and ivory antiques. The burglars used skeleton keys to gain admission and did their work so quietly that none of the 15 servants in the household was disturbed.

KENTUCKY WOMEN DIE TO SAVE KIN

Williamson, W. Va., Nov. 26.—Firing from the doorway of their home on a sheriff's posse to give their father and brother time to escape, Mrs. Charles Daniels and her 16 year old daughter were shot to death yesterday near Devon, Mingo county, by the officers.

The shooting of Mrs. Daniels and her daughter grew out of a family feud between the Christians and Daniels on the border of Kentucky and West Virginia. The Christians lived in Mingo county, W. Va., and the Daniels in Pike county, Ky. About three weeks ago, George Christian ventured to the Kentucky side and was slain by Jim Daniels. Christian and Daniels were brothers-in-law and had until recently been allies.

After the killing of Christian the two families and their friends became involved. The Christians obtained warrants for Jim Daniels and his brother Charles and led a posse of Pike county officers to the home of the Daniels. When the officers approached within a few feet of the house, Mrs. Daniels and her daughter opened fire with rifles, one of the posse receiving a bullet in the arm.

The Christians returned to the house, Mrs. Daniels was shot down in the doorway but the daughter stood over her mother's body and fired upon the posse, until she dropped dead across her mother, pierced by three bullets.

The officers closed in but by forfeiting their lives the mother and daughter had so effectually covered the retreat of their father and brother that the latter made their escape.

VOTERS ENDORSE PLAN TO AID CANADIAN NORTHERN

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 26.—The voters of British Columbia endorsed by a large majority the policy of the Mcbride government in offering to aid the Canadian Northern railway in building its transcontinental line through the province, at the elections yesterday.

Returns received from 36 of the 42 election districts in British Columbia show that at least 32 supporters of Premier Mcbride have been elected to seats in the provincial parliament. Two Liberals and two Socialists have also been chosen. John Oliver, leader of the opposition, ran for two seats, Delta and Victoria. He was defeated in both. The result of the election is an enthusiastic approval of the railroad policy of Premier Mcbride under whom a contract was made with the Canadian Northern railway to build a line from Yellowhead Pass, at the eastern border of the province, along the Fraser river to Vancouver via Kamloops, connecting by air ferry to Victoria and extending thence to an ocean terminus on Barclay sound.

BANKER HENRY SIGNED AFFIDAVIT

Contracted Habit Through Signing Affidavits Cunningham And Glavis Wanted.

HE NEVER LOOKED AT THEM

Had He Read Them, Would Not Have Allowed False Statements In Them.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 26.—Humor was injected into the Cunningham coal claims this afternoon, when Horace C. Henry, the Seattle banker and railroad builder, was placed on the stand by the defense and naively admitted that he had joined the claimants without knowing anything about the proposition, and that he had signed numerous affidavits without knowing what they contained.

"I got so in the habit of signing affidavits that I just signed anything that Cunningham and Glavis asked me to," said Mr. Henry during his examination.

Henry said that he was approached by Cunningham in 1903. Cunningham told him that J. S. Smith and former Gov. Moore of Washington were interested in the claims and asked if Henry wanted to file on one.

APPROACHED BY CUNNINGHAM.

"I told him to go ahead and put me in," said the witness. "I told him that if he wanted any money, to draw on me. He always did. I didn't pay any attention to the claims or what the other claimants were doing, because I was too busy building railroads. In the spring of 1906 I took the contract to build more than 500 miles of the coast extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, and for two years I had from 5,000 to 10,000 men at work and did not have time to bother with this coal claim."

"I let Cunningham look after it, and everything that he said I signed. I didn't have anything to do with the Guggenheim negotiations and didn't know that they were being carried on. Later, when I heard about the Guggenheim proposition, I thought that it was all right. I knew that it would cost close to $2,000,000 to build a railroad and docks to handle the coal, and I knew that one man couldn't do it alone. When the Guggenheim negotiations fell through we organized the Behring River Railway company. We didn't have any intention of building a railroad then, but merely wanted to get a right-of-way so that one else could not come in and bottle us up by getting the only available route."

Mr. Henry was shown an affidavit signed by him in which it was stated that he knew most of the claimants.

DIDN'T READ AFFIDAVITS.

"That statement is false," said Henry. "I know only three or four of these men. I signed affidavits without looking at them. Cunningham brought Glavis to the office and asked me to sign the affidavits. They said it was all right and I signed it. I didn't read it over, for if I had I wouldn't have let a false statement like that get into it."

During the cross-examination Mr. Henry was shown a copy of the Cunningham proposition. When asked if he had seen the original, he said:

"I never saw the journal and didn't know that Cunningham kept any books until he told me that it had been stolen."

"After he had you sign affidavits that you say are not true, do you believe that Cunningham told the truth when he said that Glavis stole it?" was Henry's prompt reply.

"I believe that Cunningham told the truth when he said that Glavis stole it," was Henry's prompt reply. "I didn't read it over, for if I had I wouldn't have let a false statement like that get into it."

"I believe that Cunningham told the truth when he said that Glavis stole it," was Henry's prompt reply. "I didn't read it over, for if I had I wouldn't have let a false statement like that get into it."

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING OF YOUNG FRENCHMAN

Richmond, Cal., Nov. 26.—A young man who claims to be Marquis Robert de Courcelle, son of Duke Phillip Louis de Bordeaux, former surgeon-in-chief of the French army, was found wounded by a pistol shot yesterday on a desolate marsh near Point Orient. He was taken to a hospital and is expected to recover. Physicians declare that he may be the victim of the Panama fever. He declared that the shooting was accidental, but his stories were conflicting.

Mutilated cards and other evidences of an attempt to hide his identity were found on the young man's clothing. A number of cards were found bearing the name of the Marquis de Courcelle and in an upper corner the words: "On observation tour of Europe, Siberia, Africa, South America and North America." He was on his way to San Francisco from Stockton on a river steamer. At Point Orient he disembarked, thinking he had reached the city and wandered away. When he was able to talk he asked that the Duke of Orleans at Paris be exiled.

SOLDIERS APPOINTED SECOND LIEUTENANTS

Washington, Nov. 27.—As the result of competitive examinations, the following enlisted men have been appointed second lieutenants in the field artillery arm of the army:

Sergeant Frank A. Turner, troop 1, 8th, and cavalry; Squadron Sergeant-Major Geo. G. Seaman, second cavalry; Sergeant Charles C. Reynolds, troop 1, 11th, cavalry, and Private Armine W. Smith, troop 1, 15th, cavalry.

Those appointed to the infantry arm were: Sergeant James A. McElrath, company 1, 9th infantry; Sergeant Courtney H. Hodges, company 1, 16th infantry; Sergeant Rollo C. Ditt, One Hundred and Sixteenth company coast artillery corps, and Sergeant Samuel Striling, Twentieth infantry.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

SAFE FOR WOMEN TO TRAVEL ALONE ANYWHERE

New York, Nov. 26.—That it is as easy and safe for women to travel unattended around the world as it is to go from one city to another in the United States, is the opinion of Mrs. W. F. Goodspeed and Miss Helen Deshler, both of Columbus, O., who have just arrived from Europe after making a globe-circling tour. Mrs. Goodspeed and Miss Deshler were at the Seattle exposition and decided to return home via Japan, Siberia, Russia, Germany and France. They declare that they were treated with courtesy everywhere and the attention shown them was such that they do not consider the journey a remarkable one.

LED BY A DREAM. DISCOVERED DEAD BODY

Portland, Me., Nov. 27.—Led by a dream to the shore near Mount Pleasant cemetery, William White today found the body of Alfred B. Strout, engineer of the United States government steamer Norka, who had been missing for two weeks. It is thought that the man committed suicide by drowning, because of ill health.

White dreamed a few nights ago that Strout's body was near the cemetery and, unable to shake off the impression, visited the spot today to satisfy himself.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the outward symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these external manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will sooner or later cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. Only a blood purifier can cure Contagious Blood Poison. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time, because of their strong mineral nature, and leave the poison smoldering in the system, have no treatment. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes into the blood, and removes every particle of the poison, making the circulation pure, rich and healthy, nor does S. S. S. leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S. S. S. does not contain any mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, which are most valuable in their blood-purifying properties, and at the same time specifically adapted to building up the entire system. If you have Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. will cure you because it will thoroughly purify your blood. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all.
